The Red River Valley Down Syndrome Society believes in the total inclusion of children and adults with DS and other disabilities into society, the workforce, the congregation, the education system. We believe in advocating for those with Down syndrome or other disability in a positive manner, using People-First Language, and with the belief that each person with a disability deserves a life full of opportunities which we will strive to create. Do you agree with the vision of RRVDSS, promise to work toward those goals, and exhibit a united front to members and/or the community?      Yes      No
