

LRE in Real People Language

IDEA Says	Real People Language Says
To the maximum extent appropriate	As much as possible children with disabilities are educated	your child is taught with children who are non-disabled; and	with kids who don't have disabilities special classes, separate schooling or other removal of children with disabilities from the regular education environment occurs only if	and is taken OUT of regular education and put in special classes ONLY IF the nature or severity of the disability is such that	your child's disability is so severe that education in the regular class with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily.” 34 CFR § 300.114	she or he can't get educational benefit EVEN WITH supplementary aids and services in general education settings.